Preliminary Application

(For International Applicants/Non-U.S. Citizens Only)

INTERNATIONAL APPLICANTS (NON-U.S. CITIZENS)- All international applicants interested in applying must complete and submit a preliminary application (available from the Department of History). This preliminary application will help us determine whether you meet the basic requirements for admission to the Graduate School, and whether your interests and abilities match those required by the department. We will respond in an expedient manner to all preliminary application submissions, advising whether you should complete a formal application. We will respond to your preliminary application by e-mail if you provide an e-mail address; otherwise, we will respond by regular mail.
